

FOREIGN EDUCATED NURSES

If you were educated outside the United States, are currently licensed to practice in the country where you received your education or have an active license from another government or agency outside the U.S., its territories, or commonwealths, and your license is in good standing, you may proceed to the first step in seeking licensure in Idaho.

CGFNS Credentials Evaluation Report:

Please contact the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools at www.CGFNS.org and request a CES Professional report. Let them know you want your report sent to the Idaho Board of Nursing.

JS & A Credentials Evaluation Report:

Please use this application for Josef Silny & Associates, Inc. Josef Silny & Associates, Inc (jsilny.org) and request that your evaluation be sent to Idaho Board of Nursing.

*Receiving this report can take 6 months or more.

After the report is received in our office, we will determine if your credentials qualify you to apply for an Idaho license. If they do, you will be notified by letter or email. If we don't have your contact information you will need to contact us. Once your eligibility is confirmed you will be invited to:

- Submit an (LPN or RN) Internationally Educated application for licensure along with the fees.
- Submit English proficiency in reading, writing, speaking, and listening by taking one of the following exams:
 - a. TOEFL, TSE, IELTS, PTE, or MELAB.
 - b. NOTE: International applicants who graduated from a college, university or professional training school located in Australia, Canada (except Quebec), Ireland, New Zealand or the United Kingdom are exempt from English proficiency requirements.
- Register for and take the NCLEX.
